

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

iversity hereby certifies that Lucía Durán García-Bedoya has participated in the following course from October 2020 to December 2020:

Global Supply Chains in Times of Covid-19

This multi-disciplinary online course provides the course participants with a comprehensive overview of the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on workers in global supply chains. It also deepens participants' knowledge on the structural weaknesses of global supply chains that make them prone to violations of worker rights and vulnerable to external shocks.

This critical analysis of global supply chains is used to explore key questions in rethinking their future. To this end, the course discusses a set of policy proposals and strategic responses from the Global Union Federations and worker advocacy organisations on how to regulate GSCs as well as other policy measures to overcome the crisis and build the global supply chains anew.

About the GLU

The Global Labour University (GLU) is a network of trade unions, universities, labour-support foundations and the International Labour Organisation delivering high quality masters programmes, which strengthen labour's capacities to advocate for social justice and decent work.
