

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

iversity hereby certifies that Wale Lai-ibrahim has participated in the following course from January 2020 to January 2020:

Towards Decent Work in Global Supply Chains

This multi-disciplinary online course is intended to develop the users' knowledge and analytical skills on labour in global supply chains. The course analyses some of the main labour issues in the supply chains and the related gaps in the regulatory framework. It also discusses some of the most recent regulatory measures and trade union strategies at various levels to address the existing gaps and achieve work with dignity. The course provides possibilities to network with thousands of trade unionists and labour activists from around the world. The course is led by Prof Mark Anner who is a leading researcher on labour conditions in the global garment industry.

About the Global Labour University & Penn State University

The GLU is a network of trade unions, universities, labour-support foundations and the ILO to deliver Masters Programmes. The Center for Global Workers' Rights at Penn State University, which is part of the GLU, promotes scholarly research and scholar-practitioner exchanges on issues affecting workers' rights.

iversity.org is a higher education online platform, enabling a global community of learners to study with excellent professors from all over the world. This certificate does not affirm that the student was enrolled at the mentioned institution(s) or confer any form of degree, grade or credit. The course did not verify the identity of the student.